Crede's game-winning 2B scored pinch runner Pablo Ozuna in wild 9th. Inning included controversy: With 2 outs and on a full count, AJ Pierzynski swung and missed for strike three. Umpire indicated third strike but did not call Pierzynski out – believing the ball had landed in the dirt. Since he was not tagged out, Pierzynski ran safely to 1st base as the Angels began leaving the field. Given new life, Sox inserted pinch runner Pablo Ozuna for Pierzynski. Ozuna stole 2nd, then scored on Crede's 2B.
